PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

When? Why? Who?

Three W's. What is the answer to the three W's. When, Why, and Who started you to collecting coins? I know there would be many answers to this question, and wouldn't it be interesting to hear them all. The next question is where are the new collectors coming from. Are they going to get help as we did? I would like to see young numismatics join the NCNA from all clubs in North Carolina. So let's get to work and beat the bushes, so next year we can give a Jimmy Jackson award.

The Convention is over. If you missed it, you missed a good one. Our thanks to Ten Hendricks, William Wright, Ed Moore, Autense Bason and many others. What about that Journal. Great wasn't it. Let's all work together in the coming year. Remember ANA Midwinter is just two and one half years away.

Our thanks to Fred Simpson for a job well done these past two years as our President. Thanks Fred.

I hope that I will be able to visit some of your club meetings in the coming year. Don't forget, a young numismatist may need your help in collecting, exhibits, etc. Let's make this one of our major goals this year.

Donald G. Sharpe

N.C.N.A. DATES TO REMEMBER

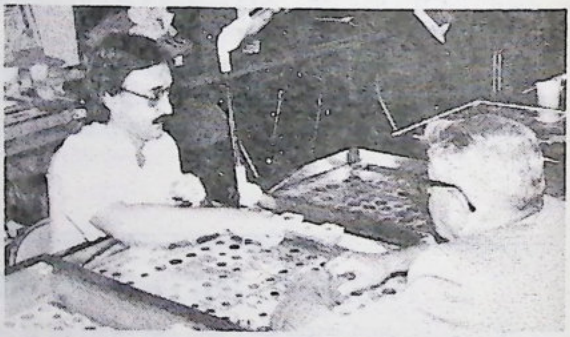
The N.C.N.A. JOURNAL is the official publication of the North Carolina Numismatic Association an educational, non-profit organization dedicated to the advancement of the hobby of numismatics. It is published four times yearly in Raleigh, North Carolina.

1984 NCNA CONVENTION

The 1984 convention of the North Carolina Numismatic Association was held at the Asheville Civic Center from September 28 through 30. Bill Wright and Ted Hendrick supervised a bourse with over sixty dealers from at least ten states and England. Many of the dealers were first time visitors to an NCNA convention. The bourse saw steady activity from Friday through Sunday.

Paul and Edna Garland returned from Texas for the convention



Billy Barefoot and Perley Hargraves working on a deal

The educational program included talks by Bill Fivaz of Atlanta and Winborne Springs of Charlotte. Mr. Fivaz' talk on the detection of commonly counterfeited coins was illustrated with slides which showed in detail the diagnostics to use in identifying genuine specimens of key United States coins and stirred considerable discussion in Charlotte and the Reid Mine while he outlined the history of gold mining in piedmont North Carolina. Autence Bason chaired the exhibits committee with her usual skill. Thanks go to Bill Fivaz and Hugh Culpepper for providing non-competitive exhibits. The eleven competitive exhibits all made contributions to the show. Richard Walker, Perley Hargraves, H. Fred Simpson, and Perry Leonard won meritorious awards. Superior awards were presented to R. E. Southworth (Mayflower Medals), H. Fred Simpson ($5 Gold Pieces from 7 Mints), Perley Hargraves (Coins of Puerto Rico), and James

O. Sweeny (Coin forms of the Year 1900). Best in Show went to Winborne Springs for his display of the complete set of banknotes from the Bank of Mexico.

Exhibitors: James Sweeny, Perry Leonard, and Perley Hargraves

The awards breakfast on Sunday morning saw the following awards made. The Bason Literary award for contributions to the NCNA JOURNAL went to Richard Walker. The H. Fred Simpson award to the Numismatic of the Year went to Charles Castleberry.

Charles Castleberry receiving Simpson Award from H. Fred Simpson

Richard Walker receiving Bason Award from Autence and Baxter Bason

The awards breakfast ended with the installation of new officers. The newly elected NCNA officers are:

Don Sharpe	President
James Little	1st Vice President
Winborne Springs	2nd Vice President
Russell Southworth	Secretary-Treasurer
Ted Hendrick	Director
H. Fred Simpson	Director
Dr. Paul Ausley	Director

Lonnie Stewart as the losing candidate for the highest ranking office will fill the vacancy on the board of directors caused by Winborne Springs being elected 2nd vice president.

The cover photo for this issue is the 1960 crown of South Africa which commemorates the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Union of South Africa. Ironically the Union, a part of the British Empire, was replaced by the Republic in the next year.

The coin, Y-70, shows the parliament building in Capetown on the reverse and the national arms on the obverse. The arms represent the four provinces: a standing female figure for Cape Province, two gnus for Natal, an orange tree for the Orange Free State, and a voer-trekker's wagon for the Transvaal.

NCNA PLANS BUS TRIP TO BALTIMORE

Join your NCNA friends on a bus trip to the ANA Convention in Baltimore in August! The cost will range between $45 and $60 round trip, depending on how many go. The convention dates are Tuesday, August 20th through Saturday, August 24th.

The following times and dates have been proposed. Leave from the Holiday Tours lot in Level Cross, N. C. on Monday, August 19th at 12 Noon. Level Cross is 10 miles south of Greensboro. Take I-85 exit 124 towards Asheboro or highway 220. Their lot is paved and fenced in for your car's security. A mechanic is also on duty. The bus arrives in Baltimore at the Convention Center and Days Inn Hotel about 7:30 p.m. with stops for a meal and breaks. The 47 passenger coach has a restroom onboard and is stocked with soft drinks. The return trip leaves the Days Inn and Convention Center at 9:00 a.m. Sunday the 25th of August, and arrives in Level Cross about 4:30 p.m.

It is suggested that hotel reservations be made as soon as possible, since close in rooms will fill early. Many of us will be at the brand new Days Inn downtown at 100 Hopkins Place, one block from the Baltimore Convention Center. This is a very nice and convenient hotel. The present rates are $64 single and $74 double. Call 1-800-325-2525.

To aid in planning this trip please return the following survey as soon as possible. A call for reservations will go out in April with final details and cost.

SIGN UP A NEW MEMBER TODAY

Use the attached membership application to do your part to help the North Carolina Numismatic Association by signing up a new member today.

On November 9, 1981 the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Numismatic Association set the following rates for dues for the different classifications of memberships.

At the same meeting the Board created a new membership classification: Joint Membership. This allows two members of the same household, either husband and wife or parent and child, to both be full members of NCNA at a reduced rate. Both would have full voting privileges, but only one copy of the NCNA JOURNAL will be mailed to the Joint Members.
